

POPULAR EDITION

MY HEART IS IN THE TRENCHES & FRANCE

Words By LAURENCE LOCKNEY.

COMPANY "C" 29th REGIMENT OF ENGINEERS.

29th Regiment, Engineers

Music By LOUIS · E.
BACKHERMS.

COMPANY "B" 29th REGIMENT OF ENGINEERS.

Published by Lockney & Backherms. U · S · A ·

5

My Heart's In The Trenches Of France

Words by
LAURENCE LOCKNEY

Introduced by Edwin J. Taylor, at Camp Devens, Mass.

Music by
LOUIS E. BACKHERMS
Arranged by CANNON HEARNE

VOICE

PIANO

Moderately with expression

While the wed - ding chimes were ring - ing, And the bride and groom were gay,
Soon the Sam - mies will be stream - ing, O'er the blood - red bat - tle field,

Chimes
f a tempo

p

Joy and good will ev - er bring - ing, On that glad - some spring-time day;
Then with col - ors bright - ly gleam - ing, They will force the Huns to yield.

p

There was one who sighed with sad - ness, There was one with droop - ing head,
While the boys rush forth to glo - ry, Crush - ing all that's in their way,

Chimes
f a tempo

p

She it was who knew no glad-ness, When she raised her eyes and said:
Court-ing fame in song and sto-ry, Then one mil-lion girls will say:

mf rit.

REFRAIN
Tenderly

I am think-ing to - night of my sweet - heart, Who has sailed far a - way o'er the foam, — Where he'll take his

p

chance on the fi-elds of France, As he fights for his coun-try and home. I care not for gay times nor cresc.

pleas - - ures, I care not for mu-sic nor dance; — My home's in a val-ley in the good old U. S. A., But my heart's in the trenches of France. I am France.

mf

cresc. f p mf mf

